

CASE STUDY

TRELLEBORG

Introduction

Saxon Design Limited are a UK based International Exhibition and Event Design Contractor formed over 30 years ago. We offer a full range of services from design concept through to on-site installation.

Our initial brief from Trelleborg Sealing Solutions Aerospace Division in 2008 was to design and install a business chalet for the Farnborough Airshow.

Success

Saxon have delivered numerous projects which have utilised Trelleborg's corporate guidelines whilst developing new ideas for display and presentation at shows not previously attended.

As Trelleborg have looked to attend new shows in different territories we have been able to offer our single point of contact to service their needs. Through our global network of partners backed up by our in-house design we have been able to deliver seamlessly at locations close to home and around the globe
